Hang Onto Your Hat

These crowning glories will protect you from the sun—and help you preen in style—all summer long

By Sahar Khan

1 HEADY DAYS Chanel Brigitte Bardot in Biarritz with Versace's colorful neon silk foulard headscarf, which adds a boho touch to a sultry silhouette. $495, versace.com

2 BATTER UP The humble baseball cap is having a high-fashion moment; this iteration by Courrèges hits it out of the park with a canary yellow hue and glossy surface. $170, courreges.com

3 PICK THE BUCKET This style evokes childhood; Etro honors that carefree spirit with joyful orange florals but matures things a bit with a sharp geometric print. $350, etro.com

4 NET RESULT Philosophy di Lorenzo Serafini melds the panache of the fascinator with a swingin'-'60s baby-doll cap that intimates savoir vivre and insouciance. $275, farfetch.com

5 IN THE SWIM A cross between a mid-century swim cap and a contemporary skull cap, this multicolored Paco Rabanne chapeau is sure to make a statement on the beach or the boardwalk. $226, farfetch.com

6 STRAW POLL Straw hats are ubiquitous in summer, but Alberta Ferretti's jungle green version elevates the modest sun shield to a crown for a tropical queen. $485, luisaviaroma.com

7 GO WIDE Erdem goes full modern-day Southern belle with this broad-brimmed floral linen chine headpiece, best worn while sipping mint juleps on a veranda. $2,095, erdem.com

8 GIDDY UP Luisa Spagnoli's take on the timeless cowboy hat comes up aces when paired with a sun-bright shirt, plaid skirt, and Wild West attitude. $200, luisaspagnoli.it
