

STYLE
obsessions

"Ellery is an amazing line out of Australia. The designer, Kym Ellery, has a great eye for creating seasonless favorites."

Sunglasses, $485, by Ellery at modaoperandi.com

"Comfortable yet tailored and flattering at the same time—if you ask me, they're the chicest mom jeans in town."

Original high-waisted skinny jean, $590, at Saint Laurent Paris, 3 E. 57th St., ysl.com

"It's a toss up between flats or boots in the morning. While my decision is more determined by my mood, plus the weather, Tabitha Simmons does both perfectly."

Melody booties, $1,195, by Tabitha Simmons at Barneys New York, 660 Madison Ave., tabithasimmons.com

"I preordered a Nexus ring by LA-based jewelry designer Yves Spinelli. I love the shape of the interconnected stacking bands and that I can wear it day and night. It bridges the gap between fine and fashion jewelry."

Nexus ring, $7,000, by Spinelli Kilcollin at modaoperandi.com

"My favorite facialist is Georgia Louise. She leaves my sensitive skin refreshed. This mist from her skincare line is my saving grace for combatting dry skin."

Rose water, $75, at Georgia Louise Atelier, 114 E. 71st St., georgialouise.co.uk

"The cable-knit detail on this sweater reminds me of the Greenwich, Conn., style I grew up surrounded by."

Sweater, $975, by Giamba at giambattistavalli.com

LEADER OF THE (FASHION) PACK

Lauren Santo Domingo, Vogue contributing editor, co-founder of Moda Operandi and all-around style-setter, takes us through the beautiful things and beautifying experiences she's coveting for the colder months.